

Acknowledgements

- Here in place of Jo Mullarkey – research nurse
  - Responsible for 2016 entry and collected the award last year.
- Wayne Burrill – laboratory manager

Ethical Tissue

- Developed from a cancer tissue bank at the Institute of Cancer Therapeutics
- Small but unique
- Researcher led
- Supply not store
- Any tissue – including difficult to source
- Tissue donation after death

Biobank of the Year 2016

- A real honour and thanks to UK CRC for their recognition.
- 10 ways it has had an impact

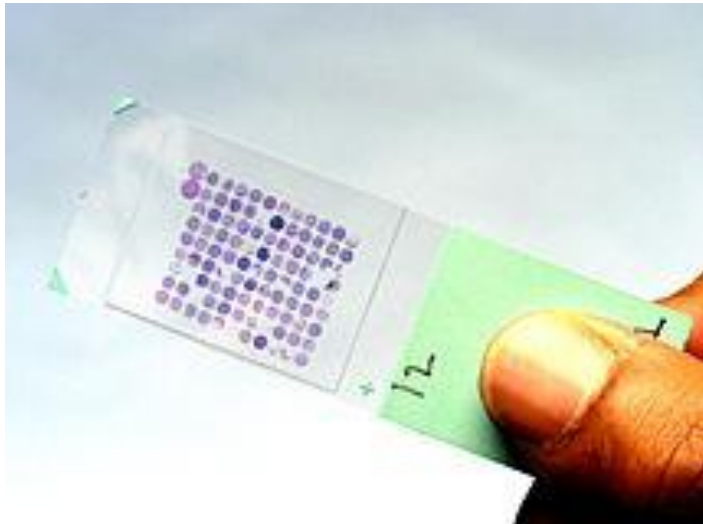

1. Now will you shut up!

2. Confidence, both ours and the UoB

3. New contacts

4. New services and collaborations

BBC

AT THE EDINBURGH FESTIVAL

5. Jo invited to speak at the Edinburgh Festival...

6. ...and at a conference in
San Francisco

9. Charity links

10. Growing Tissue Donation After Death

Congratulations and best wishes to this year's winner from the team at Ethical Tissue